

- Q. What train did you take?
A. Either the one arriving at Lavalette 5.50 or 6.45 P.M.
Q. What did you do on arriving home?
A. Said I felt tired and did not expect to fish.
Q. If you took dinner, how long a time did this consume?
A. About 30 minutes.
Q. What did you do after that?
A. Mr. Stevens came over and said the fish were biting, so I changed my clothes and decided to go fishing.
Q. If you went fishing on the beach, about what time did you actually go there?
A. Between 7.30 and 8 o'clock.
Q. Did you go direct to the beach or did you stop anywhere?
A. Stopped at Mr. Stevens' house.
Q. If you stopped anywhere, for what purpose did you stop?
For bait?
A. Yes, for bait.
Q. Did you talk with anyone that night?
A. Yes
Q. Did you see Henry Stevens on the beach? If so, what was he doing?
A. Fishing.
Q. Did you converse with him?
A. Yes
Q. What other persons did you see on the beach?
A. I saw a number of men fishing. I assume they were the ones who fished regularly.
Q. What, if anything, occurred?
A. Nothing except the usual things that happen when you fish.
Q. If you fished, were you close to Mr. Stevens? If so, about how many feet?
A. 10 feet or less, depending on conditions. As a rule Mr. Stevens and I would cast our lines and then sit close together on our boxes and talk.
Q. How long did you fish?
A. Until about 9.45.
Q. What did you do after that?
A. Went to Mr. Stevens' house.
Q. Did you go home?
A. Not immediately.
Q. If not, where did you go?
A. To Mr. Stevens' house.
Q. Did you go to Henry Stevens' home?
A. Yes
Q. If so, did he accompany you?
A. No, he left the beach ahead of me, as I believe he wanted to clean some fish.
Q. Do you remember the exact time that he reached his home?
A. No, but judge around 9.30.
